WELWIND ENERGY INTERNATIONAL CORP OPENS NEW CORPORATE OFFICE IN YANGXI, CHINA

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 11, 2008 (PRIME NEWSWIRE) -- Welwind Energy International Corp. (OTCBB: WWEI.OB) (the "Company") has visited the site near Dawson Creek British Columbia and met with the landowners of the 4680 acre Peace Region project. The majority of the project will be situated on private cultivated land. Currently the properties are being used primarily for hay farming and cattle ranching. Welwind Director, Shannon de Delley reports that the company intends to install 2 to 4 meteorological towers on the property this fall.

The Peace River region is known to be one of the windiest areas in B.C. and is currently being considered by many wind developers, with some wind farms now under construction. The Clean Power Call by BC Hydro indicates that at least 90 per cent of all electricity generated in the Province must continue to come from clean or renewable sources and to achieve electricity self-sufficiency by 2016.

Investor Relations -- The Company further announces that it has retained the services of NetGain Financial for Investor Relations and Merger and Acquisition services. NetGain specializes in working with small-cap and mid-cap companies in a variety of industries. By leveraging many years of experience in the financial markets, NetGain assists clients in achieving broad market awareness through effective dissemination of their corporate information.

Chinese Website -- In conjunction with the hiring of NetGain, the company has officially launched a fully integrated Chinese website under the URL www.welwind.cn. The new website gives up to date information and allows Welwind to market the company to the Chinese communities globally.
